PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are so excited for this new year. Another year for our BYUH Women's Organization to provide book scholarships for students here at Brigham Young University-Hawaii. We have been blessed to have the resources and abundant help from the community and university. We invite all women to join us for our monthly luncheon where we broaden our horizons and expand our world through learning. We are constantly learning new things everyday and what better way to do it than with a group of amazing women! And we get to help students at the same time. I’m excited to work with all the ladies on our board. These are dynamic women who are here to help this organization reach its potential both in the service we provide and in the camaraderie we enjoy.

The joy that comes from helping these students fills us to overflowing when we see their cheerful faces as they accept their book scholarships. It’s so rewarding to witness the surprised yet tearful and grateful expressions on the faces of a young family as they receive our box of turkey, stuffing, canned goods, gifts and all the other yummy things we include in a Christmas dinner through our Sub for Santa program.

I’ve been a member of this organization since 2007 and have enjoyed meeting wonderful women from all over the world and learning and growing from each month’s luncheon speaker. I hope that we can continue to come together as sisters in unity and love as we help students in need here at BYUH.

RECIPE

Yummy Mummies

INGREDIENTS:
- 1 package Smoked Sausage or smokies.
- 1 package prepared pizza dough

DIRECTIONS:
1. Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Roll out 1 package of prepared pizza dough and cut into 15 thin strips.
2. If you are using Smithfield SmokedSausage Loops, slice the sausage into 3 to 4-inch pieces.
3. Starting with a completely dry sausage, wrap 3 strips of pizza dough around the meat overlapping various patterns. Don’t be too perfect, or it won’t look like a mummy. Make sure to leave some of the sausage visible through the strips.
4. Place mummies on a parchment lined sheet tray and bake for 13 minutes. Serve with mustard and ketchup.
